Gilbert House Children's Museum Foster Family Membership Application

Gilbert House Children's Museum offers reduced cost memberships to foster families in Marion and Polk Counties thanks to funding through grants and the generous support of our donors. This yearly membership is $40 (more than half off the regular price membership) and includes unlimited admission for two named adults and up to four children per visit along with discounts on camps, classes, birthday parties and in the Gift Shop.

To apply, please fill out this application and submit a copy of your Foster Care License.

Once the application is completed and you have attached a copy (we cannot return originals) of your license document, you can mail or drop it off at:

Gilbert House Children's Museum, ACCESS Program
116 Marion Street NE
Salem, OR 97301

or fax it to: 503-316-3485

Please allow 2-3 week for application processing and an additional 1-2 weeks to process payments with checks. You will receive a letter awarding or denying Foster Family membership. If you are awarded membership bring this letter along with the $40 payment to the Museum to activate your membership. The confirmation letter will be valid for one month. If you do not activate the membership within that time, or you lose the letter, you must reapply.
