We invite you to help bring kids back to Gilbert House!

It has been a year since we have heard the joyful sound of children playing and learning at Gilbert House Children's Museum. Throughout the pandemic closure we have worked to keep children and families engaged at home, but we are so excited that we finally have the opportunity to reopen our doors. We are being cautious with our reopening plan, as the safety of our community is important to us. The number of visitors will be limited and the visits will be experienced through timed entries. We look forward to the day when we can return to walk up admissions, but until then, we hope you will join us in supporting our phased reopening and the return of active play to the Gilbert House Children's Museum.
